5th April 2011

Dear Member

This month I write to tell you of two important events. Firstly the AGM which was to have been on Saturday 16th April has had to be postponed until Saturday 7th May. This will be at Stockton URC at 7.30pm and will be followed by the Chairman's Evening, which will feature two young performers, a pianist and a cellist. Those who were present last year will know how many talented young musicians there are in this area. Please do come and support them.

As the above event has now been moved to May, it seems appropriate to mention the event on Saturday 21st May. which will be at St Peter's Church, Stockton, again beginning at 7.30pm.

George Barber has agreed to hold an "OPEN CHOIR PRACTICE" where we can watch St Peter's Choir in rehearsal. He will talk about some of the principles which they try to adhere to in hymn singing, chanting, anthems etc. There will also be time for questions.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to see a choirmaster of George's caliber in action. Definitely, not one to be missed!! Please do support this.

Yours sincerely

Geoff Hill
Hon Secretary
